Nov. 15, 1943.

Dear Evabel & Jack,

Received your letter and it sure was good to hear from you & to know you both are well, we are all fine here.

Shelly was just thrilled with the insignia you sent and thank you very much.

Pa & Aunt Celia were over and they received your letter and they are both well, Aunt Celia is getting ready for the engagement, she & Kim Brunner are going I guess

2
pa will go also, they want me to go but it sure comes out at a late date & hate to leave Shelly miss school.

We sure had some awful weather here its rained, snowed & etc, I sure hate to think that winter is here.

Do you think you both will be home for Xmas, it sure would be swell.

I saw Bessie on the bus the other nite & she thinks Loyd will be sent across. Olive rented out her house & moved into an apt., upstairs of her mother's.

I bet that must of
been some fire, was it

located far from where you both are.

Oh yes Aunt Celia said that she might know them as she was in business in Balt. In writing for Pat Aunt Celia also so this will be a family letter,

You sure made lots of friends in N.C. The people must be very friendly, by the way say hello to Jack's sister & her family from us all.

Dolly called me & told me she was up to the house where you live & she found your telephone bill in the mail box so I'll take it and pay your bill here I was waiting for you to send the bill.

Do they have a lot of Jewish people in Henderson (don't mind me if I jump from one subject to another that's me) and do they have a temple there about how large is it?

We played a little cards but I had no luck I'll have to get some of your luck Evabel oh how about sending me some luck.

I shall finish this letter to morrow as I'm going to take a shower & go to bed.

Well Jack I'm learning from you to start one day on a letter & finish the next with a kid, maybe I'll be able to think up some more gossip by morning. don't ask me what I did during the nite - ? good nite for now - P.S. Bew is going to write now

Good Morning folks its 7:30 and here I am again, we have snow out side this morning, Shelly is washing & getting ready for school

⁶
Well I guess I've written all of the news from here, (can't think must of slept to good) That I know so will close with best regards to you both & the rest from all of us here.

Let us hear from you soon.

Yours truly
John
